

Student Code of Conduct Jurisdiction

WHEN

All persons when they are Students (enrolled at the University)

Conduct prior to becoming a student that demonstrates a risk to campus, not already addressed by the University

Conduct of a person no longer a student that reportedly occurred while the person was a Student

WHEN

On campus or within the University's programs and activities

Within University programs and activities

On University Premises, including physical locations and technological space controlled by the University

Regardless of the location of the conduct when:

The reported conduct is directed at substantially disrupting University operations

The reported conduct demonstrates a risk of physical harm to persons in University programs or activities or on University Premises

The reported Respondent has a supervisory or similar relationship over the person to whom the reported conduct was directed at or towards

The reported conduct is subject to criminal prosecution and charged at a felony level

The reported conduct would violate articulated professional standards applicable to the Respondent's field of study or related profession

The reported conduct
appears to be a part of a continuation or pattern of Prohibited Conduct

OR regardless of location if the reported conduct meets a majority of the following criteria:

The reported conduct is/was directed at or toward another Student, Employee, or Visitor of the University

The reported conduct, if true, would be severe enough to potentially warrant a suspension or dismissal as a Student and/or from University employment

The impact/effect of the conduct would logically and foreseeably create a material impediment to another Student, Employee, or Visitor's access or participation on campus

Evidence of the reported conduct can be gathered without inordinate expense, effort, or delay

The reported conduct occurs in a context that a reasonable person would expect the University would have an interest in